THE BOARD OF

Last Night's Meeting Largely Attended by Representative Citizens of Helena.

A President, Vice-President and New Board of Directors Elected

A Secretary and Treasurer to Be Chosen at Some Future Time-Remarks by Mr. Floyd-Jones.

The Board of Trade meeting last night was very largely attended. In fact it was the best attended meeting that the Board of Trade ever had and the representative citizens of Helena were there. Among the large number present were noticed:

Gen. Harris, Dr. C. K. Cole, R. H. Floyd-Jones, D. A. Flowerree, Col. Curtis, Geo. E. Boos, T. H. Burke, T. H. Kleinschmidt, Neil Vawter, M. E. Downs, T. H. Murphy, J. R. Watson, A. J. Steele, S. C. Harris stated that the object of the meeting was for the election of a president, vice-president and twenty-one directors. Dr. C. K. Cole was made chairman of the Dr. C. K. Cole was made chairman of the meeting and on motion of Mr. Kleinschmidt Messrs. Boos and Clark were appointed tellers. The balloting was quietly conducted and on motion the voting was declared closed at 8:30 p. m. Before the ballots were counted Mr. Floyd-Jones made a few remarks in which he said it was intended to start the board of trade out on a new basis. It needed more said it was intended to start the board of trade out on a new basis. It needed more life and as it is the medium through which all merchants and business men expect to extend their business he thought it should receive more earnest support and felt satisfied from an observa-tion of the attendance that all interest in support and left satisfied from an observation of the attendance that all interest in it was not lost. He was a strong advocate of a liberal use uf printer's ink in making known to the world Helena's advantages and thought thoroughly competent men should be employed to write up facts for publication in only standard publications.

The tellers then proceeded with counting the ballots, which showed the following ticket was elected: President, A. M. Holter.
Vice-president, C. W. Cannon.
Directors, T. C. Power, R. C. Wallace,
Henry Klein, H. M. Parchen, S. T. Hauser,

The Demand Active and the Outlook for eral sales of west side property have been than truth, no policy safer than honesty. made principally in the Bradford addition While the spring and summer trade in real estate was unusually active, dealers a ticipate even more activity than has been witnessed this year. Among the dealers who have great confidence in renewed activity next spring is Mr. French. Relative to the situation he said yesterday, "the people of Helena are opening their eyes to the fact that the choice ground throughout the city is being taken up by outside capital and are quietly buying for the spring rise. Among their transactions for the week Mr. French reports the following: A block on the Richmond Hill to Sheriff Jefferis; a corner of Helena avenue and Rodney street; one lot on Eighth avenue, seven Broadway lots; 4 in Ming addition; two lots on Montana avenue and two residences on the East side.

Porter, Muth & Cox join in saying that next spring is Mr. French. Relative to the avenue and two residences on the East side.

Porter, Muth & Cox join in saying that trade is good and that during the week among their sales was a lot in the Bradford for $25 a foot, the highest figure yet secured for property in that locality. They also have some lots in the Hotel Park addition for $10 a foot. They think that will prove a favorite suburban resort on account of its close proximity to the Hotel Broadwater, and it is said several handsome cottages will be built there next summer for the benefit of tourists who care to remain the benefit of tourists who care to remain
